

Justice and International Mission Convention
2010

Consuming Passions

Saturday 2 October
9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Centre for Theology and Ministry,
1 Morrison Close Parkville

We are all conscious that over-consumption is bad for the environment and can be bad for our health. However, is there such a thing as ethical consumerism or is it just another marketing tool to keep us consuming the earth's resources? Are we immune to the tactics of marketers and advertisers, or are we kidding ourselves? What biblical and theological insights will help us?

Keynote Speakers

- Janette Gray RSM - Janette Gray is a lecturer in theology at the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville
- Jane Caro - communications consultant and lecturer in Advertising Creative at the School of Communication Arts at UWS and has been a regular panellist on the ABC program on advertising 'The Gruen Transfer'
- Professor Sandra Jones - Director of the Centre for Health Initiatives, University of Wollongong.
- Cameron Neil - Operations Manager, Fairtrade Labelling Australia & New Zealand
- Liz Thompson - Former co-ordinator for the Fairwear campaign

Cost: $30 for Metropolitan participants/
$20 concession and non-Metropolitan participants

To register contact the Justice and International Mission Unit on 03 92515271 or jim@victas.uca.org.au

Commission for Mission

JUSTICE & INTERNATIONAL MISSION